

Description of an optional academic component

Academic Component	Optional Academic Component «INFORMATION SECURITY OF EUROPEAN COUNTRIES»
Level of HE	second (master's) level
Title of Specialty / Educational and Professional Program	C3 International Relations / EPP International Strategic Communications
Form of Education	Full-time
Course, Semester, Duration	1st year, 1 semester, 4 credits
Semester Control	Credit
Number of Hours (total: including lectures / practical)	120 hours (10 lectures / 14 practical)
Language of Instruction	English
Department that Provides Teaching	Department of International Communications and Political Analyses
Instructor	Candidate of Political Sciences; Associate Professor YEVHENIJA VOZNYUK
Brief Description
Requirements for Starting Studies	Basic knowledge of information security, information hygiene, international relations.
What will be Studied	Fundamentals of information security of European countries: legal framework, state and organizational apparatus, current problems, threats, solutions and promising means of security.
Why is it Interesting / should be Studied?	Information security is an extremely pressing issue for the development and protection of citizens at the current stage of the spread of hybrid warfare.
What can you Learn (Learning Results)?	The study of the discipline contributes to the formation of students' scientific understanding of the concept and features of information security in general, knowledge and basics of information hygiene in practical situations, as well as the level of information security in Europe during the hybrid war. Ability to use information and communication technologies. Ability to analyze international processes in various contexts, including political, security, information, etc.
How to Use the Acquired Knowledge and Skills (Competencies)?	Understand the essence of information security; analyze current threats and identify preventive ways of non-dissemination of fakes, misinformation and protection of personal data,

	especially in social networks; to be guided in the causes and consequences of intensification of cyber-attacks. Solve complex specialized tasks and practical problems in the field of international relations, information security, public communications. Analyze the structure and dynamics of international public communications, identify its impact on the international system and social institutions. Carry out communications and information and analytical activities in the field of international relations (in English).
--	--