

Educational component		Elective educational component 5.2 «EU' Cohesion Policy»
Level HE		First (bachelor) level
Name of specialty / educational-professional program		291 «International Relations, Public Communications and Regional Studies» / «International Relations»
Form of study		Full-time
Course, semester, duration		3 year, 5 semester, 5 credits
Semester control		Credit
Number of hours (total: including lectures / practical)		150 hours (10 lectures, 20 practical)
Language of instruction		English
Department that provides teaching		Department of International Relations and Regional Studies
Author of the Educational component		PhD in Economics, assoc. prof. of Department of International Relations and Regional Studies Ilona Balak
Brief description
Requirements for the beginning of the study		Awareness of the need for regional development as a component of the effective functioning of society in general and international relations in particular; desire for self-development; basic skills of modern educational and information communications.
What will be studied		Features of the EU' Cohesion policy in modern international relations
Why it is interesting / necessary to study		Covers the historical foundations of regions cooperation in EU. Explores the leading trends and key objectives of the European Cohesion policy. Analyzes the European institutions support of the common Cohesion policy. Reveals the features of the Cohesion policy in the different fields: education, training, medicine, culture etc.
Why you can learn (learning results)		The applicant will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - know and understand the nature of international relations and the role of European Cohesion policy in modern society; - have the skills to independently determine educational goals and study in EU' Cohesion policy; - know the nature and mechanisms of European Cohesion policy realization.
How to use the acquired knowledge and skills (competencies)		The applicant obtains the ability to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - exercise their rights and responsibilities as a member of society; - preserve and increase the moral, cultural, scientific values and achievements of society based on understanding the history and patterns of development of the European Cohesion policy, its place in the general system of knowledge about society and international relations; - work in an international context; - generate new ideas (creativity); - apply knowledge in practical situations.